The University of Minnesota is seeking candidates for a part time Occupational Therapy (OT) Client Teaching Specialist position. This individual will support instruction in occupational therapy courses from the perspective of one who has received occupational therapy services.

This single staff position has two possible campuses, Rochester or Twin Cities:

- Job ID 312287 Rochester campus
- Job ID 311986 Twin Cities campus

The Program in Occupational Therapy (OT) at the University of Minnesota is one of the oldest occupational therapy programs in the United States; having first prepared rehabilitation aids during the first World War. Since 1946 students have learned and practiced skills of occupational therapy in an accredited, occupational therapy program. Our rich history demonstrates our commitment to prepare outstanding occupational therapists. Faculty are committed to quality teaching using innovative approaches using blended online learning, experiential learning, public engagement, and supported research.

This is a part-time position based at the University of Minnesota Rochester or Twin Cities campus. Salary will be commensurate with credentials and experience. Employment is by semesters to specifically support portions of occupational therapy courses.

Required Qualifications:
- History of receiving occupational therapy services for at least fourteen sessions.
- Demonstrated skill in communicating with adults with or without accommodations.
- Completed bachelor’s degree.
- Proficient in Microsoft word and web-based communication systems.

Desired Qualifications:
- History of teaching others (within higher education preferred).
- Experience using online learning platforms.

Diversity
The University recognizes and values the importance of diversity and inclusion in enriching the employment experience of its employees and in supporting the academic mission. The University is committed to attracting and retaining employees with varying identities and backgrounds.

The University of Minnesota provides equal access to and opportunity in its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.
